Extinguished at Both Ends

The 16th Century metaphor, “Burning the candle at both ends” describe people who exhaust themselves by trying to do too much. Attacks from people in ministry, family difficulties, while maintaining secular employment can be overwhelming.

This worship will explore the difficulties in maintain a Biblical balance and offer Biblical solutions to help your candle to not burn out.

Galatians 6:9

“Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.”

Matthew 6:33

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Matthew 6:34

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Galatians 6:9

And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.
